Dear Judge McLaughlin,

My name is Jean Michel LeTennier and I am the Owner of Omega Network Services Corp (<http://www.onsglobal.com>), an IT Consulting Company founded in 1998. I also have worked for the Dept of Education for the City of NY rebuilding their School Network and work closely with their security area. Additionally I work with both systems security and physical security issues at several global companies, State Governments, the US government, and today the NYC municipal Government agencies.

I have been close friends with Andrew Mogilyansky and his wife for 5 years, since the time Andrew and I were in business together selling computer servers. I have seen and been in the company of Andrew and his family on thousands of both social and family gatherings over the years. I have no problem leaving my own children in his and his wife's care anytime anywhere. I can always rely on Andrew and his family; he is a good friend, and a very trustworthy business partner. I treat him with great respect and probably won't have enough words to express how much his friendship means to me and how much compassion I have to this person.

I kindly ask you to be as understanding and lenient towards Andrew as your conscience permits.

Respectfully,

Jean Michel LeTennier
