Re: Andrew Mogilyansky

Dear Judge McLaughlin,

My name is Nikolay Ananin and I am vice-president of My Global Ad Media Group, Inc., an advertising agency. I met Andrew Mogilyansky 4.5 years ago, and I honestly consider myself extremely lucky to have known him.

I moved to the USA about 5 years ago. My first year in America was not an easy one. I was 19 and did not have anything except for $100 bill in my pocket and a great deal of ambitions. Within 10 months, I changed 14 jobs. Working at a construction company, I fell off the roof and broke my arm. It was the worst time in my life, and I do not know how I would have handled it, if I had not met Andrew.

Fortunately, at that time, I got acquainted with Andrew who became like a brother to me – I mean it: he was nobody, but my American brother. Andrew was of tremendous help and support. He offered me to collaborate with Russian Yellow Pages, which he was President of, as an advertising agent, and helped me survive, and I will be always grateful to him for everything he has done. In all bad and good times, I have always known that he is there to support.

Many of my decisions were made and shaped in accordance with Andrew's wise advice. He has always been an inspiration to me. Andrew persuaded me to go to Temple University and receive American education. He also influenced my career choice.

Whenever I had a question, he would always be there to help. He enriched my inner world and significantly changed my personality. I became more attentive to people around and more demanding of myself. He helped me develop both professionally and personally – from a 19 year-old kid into a mature individual, and I honestly think that Andrew had the most significant impact on my personality. I probably will not have enough words to express how much his friendship means to me and how much compassion I have for him.

Should you have any additional questions, I would be glad to speak with you further regarding Andrew Mogilyansky.

Respectfully,

Nikolay Ananin
