Dear Judge McLaughlin,

My name is Deborah Solomon Mogilyansky and I am married to Andrew Mogilyansky's cousin. I have known Andrew for more than five years, since the time my husband and I were married and I met his extended family.

I know Andrew as a gentle, cordial, good-humored and extremely generous person. He immediately offers assistance where it might be needed and all of the people in his circle of friends and family know that they can rely on him. I have had many occasions to observe his twin boy and girl clinging to him because they are very dependent on and attached to their father. Andrew could not be more attentive to his family. He is a good friend, a good relative, a good father and a good person.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,
