Dear Judge McLaughlin,

My name is Olga Mogilyanskiy and I am a Senior Citizen (retired). I hold a part-time job as a TJMaxx associate. I was married to Andrew's uncle who passed away four years ago. I know Andrew his whole life. As a child, he used to stay at our apartment in Ukraine during his summer vacations (Andrew lived in Russia with his mother, but his father's part of the family was in Ukraine).

My husband became seriously ill (he got partially paralyzed after a major stroke and lost ability to talk) in 1991. Andrew and his father were in the United States at that point in time. They were trying to help us as much as they could (and as much as it was possible considering the distance). Andrew flew to Ukraine and convinced my daughter and us to immigrate to the US. He and his father sponsored our arrival to this country; my husband and I lived and Andrew's house for two years (and so did Andrew's 88-year-old grandmother). He offered us his help and support. All his life Andrew has been helping those in need, he is always ready to step in. He is a truly and deeply nice person.

After my husband passed away in June 2005, Andrew told me that I can always count on him and I know that when he says something he really means it. He is a good man and I hope that his life situation changes for best. Please be kind to him.

Thank you for your time and your consideration to my letter.

Respectfully,

Olga Mogilyanskiy
