The Honorable Mary A. McLaughlin
United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania
U. S. Courthouse
601 Market Street, Room 13614
Philadelphia, PA 19106-1723

Dear Judge McLaughlin:

My name is Felix Kremer and I am a partner in a private anesthesiology company providing services to several local hospitals.

I first met Andrew Mogilynsky, then a young immigrant, about twenty years ago. I was amazed by his intellectual capacity. Our casual discussions of medical topics exalted him and generated ideas which a serious expert would not be ashamed of. No concept seemed difficult to him, no target unattainable. It came as no surprise to me when Andrew was admitted to Columbia University where his brilliance was acknowledged by tutors and peers alike.

Yet it was not his mental agility that really astounded me, it was his attitude to a sick person who had unbearable time suffering from depression. Andrew would spend bit of his, by now, very precious time with her and help relieve her misery. This person was my late wife and Andrew's soft humor and gentility made her smile.

Many people know of Andrew's money-raising effort to help the victims of horrific terror acts, but for me it was the tranquility of heart and mind that he brought to my wife that meant a lot at the time. His warm and kind heart is what makes Andrew and extraordinary person.

Respectfully yours,

Felix Kremer, M.D.
