Dear Judge McLaughlin,

My name is Svitlana Polishchuk. I work in the main administration of pension fund of Ukraine in the Rivne region for the last 10 years. I am writing to you regarding Andrew Mogilyansky. I have been friends with Andrew's wife, Oksana, for over 20 years, we have been best friends since elementary school.

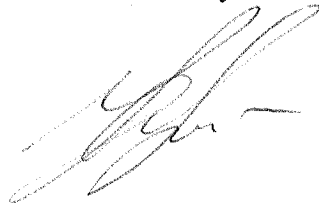

I first met Andrew Mogilyansky when he came with Oksana to Rovno, our home town, to meet her parents, in 1999. He made an impression of smart, intelligent and attractive guy with whom Oksana seemed very happy. I saw their remarkable relationship, mutual understanding and certainly love. I was very glad when they decided to marry, because they indeed were a perfect match for each other, in my opinion.

Andrew is an amazing person, who is always ready to help at any minute even to the outsider. I respect him for that he did for victims in Beslan. It is indeed big deed which not everybody could be able to organize and realize in life. I admire his zeal and courage in this. I can easily say that Andrew's actions positively affect not only his family and friends, but also the world.

As I got to know Andrew more throughout the years, I also found him to be a great husband. Andrew is a great family man, and especially it became obvious when their children were born. Andrew adores the children, and Oksana is infinitely happy with him. They have a marvelous family, and the world would be a better place if there were more such families.

Thank you for your consideration of my letter!

Respectfully,

Svitlana Polischuk
